WHAT DO YOU NEED TO KNOW WHEN ENTERING RUSSIA?

ATTENTION! Import of cigarettes, tobacco products and dry plant products (including seeds, raised plants, growing stock, and plant products) is prohibited. The maximum amount allowed is 250 grams of tobacco and 1 kg of plant products.

WHAT DO YOU NEED TO KNOW WHEN LEAVING RUSSIA?

ATTENTION! It is prohibited to export over 10 liters of alcoholic beverages or beer from Russia. Tobacco products that can be imported without paying customs duties: 200 cigarettes, or 500 grams of tobacco, or 250 grams of tobacco products. Listed above, with a total weight not exceeding 250 grams.

WHAT CAN BE DECLARED WHEN ENTERING AND LEAVING RUSSIA?

The Customs Rules of Russia provide a list of goods that must be declared when entering or leaving Russia. Regardless of whether they come with a passenger or unaccompanied in luggage. Goods in hand luggage or separate from the passenger shall be stated on the declaration form. It shall be filled in by individuals over 16.

WHAT CAN BE DECLARED IF IT EXCEEDS THE QUOTA?

It is prohibited to export over 10 liters of alcoholic beverages or beer from Russia. Tobacco products that can be imported without paying customs duties: 200 cigarettes, or 500 grams of tobacco, or 250 grams of tobacco products. Listed above, with a total weight not exceeding 250 grams.

ATTENTION! It is prohibited to export over 5 liters of alcoholic beverages or beer from abroad. As alcoholic beverages over 1 liter must be declared and customs duties and taxes paid for every liter over the quota.

WHAT DO YOU NEED TO KNOW WHEN LEAVING RUSSIA?

ATTENTION! It is prohibitory to bring in the customs territory of the Eurasian Economic Union* hereinafter “the Union”) without paying customs duties or taxes regardless of the goods’ cost and (or) weight.

ATTENTION! Import of drugs and cats transported for personal use in the amount not exceeding two animals is allowed with an international passport provided that the animal has no records about vaccination and clinical examination within five days before transportation. Dogs and cats in the amount exceeding two animals as well as polecats and rabbits shall be imported to the Russian Federation under permission of the Federal Service for Veterinary and Phytosanitary Supervision (Rosleskhoznadzor), as well as the conclusion on the customs territory of the Union, including the list of goods prohibited for personal use.

ATTENTION! It is prohibited to export over 20 liters of fuel in an individual container (fuel tank). It is allowed to export diamonds worth up to USD 75,000.

ATTENTION! Almost all of the goods listed must have accompanying documents. The owner must provide certificates issued by relevant authorities confirming that the items are legally transported. We recommend studying the matter in detail if you are planning to export or import anything listed above.

WHAT CAN BE DECLARED WHEN ENTERING AND LEAVING RUSSIA?

The Customs Rules of Russia provide a list of goods that must be declared when entering or leaving Russia. Regardless of whether they come with a passenger or unaccompanied in luggage. Goods in hand luggage or separate from the passenger shall be stated on the declaration form. It shall be filled in by individuals over 16.

WHAT CAN BE DECLARED IF IT EXCEEDS THE QUOTA?

It is prohibited to export over 10 liters of alcoholic beverages or beer from Russia. Tobacco products that can be imported without paying customs duties: 200 cigarettes, or 500 grams of tobacco, or 250 grams of tobacco products. Listed above, with a total weight not exceeding 250 grams.

ATTENTION! It is prohibited to export over 5 liters of alcoholic beverages or beer from abroad. As alcoholic beverages over 1 liter must be declared and customs duties and taxes paid for every liter over the quota.

WHAT DO YOU NEED TO KNOW WHEN LEAVING RUSSIA?

ATTENTION! It is prohibitory to bring in the customs territory of the Eurasian Economic Union* hereinafter “the Union”) without paying customs duties or taxes regardless of the goods’ cost and (or) weight.

ATTENTION! Import of drugs and cats transported for personal use in the amount not exceeding two animals is allowed with an international passport provided that the animal has no records about vaccination and clinical examination within five days before transportation. Dogs and cats in the amount exceeding two animals as well as polecats and rabbits shall be imported to the Russian Federation under permission of the Federal Service for Veterinary and Phytosanitary Supervision (Rosleskhoznadzor), as well as the conclusion on the customs territory of the Union, including the list of goods prohibited for personal use.

ATTENTION! It is prohibited to export over 20 liters of fuel in an individual container (fuel tank). It is allowed to export diamonds worth up to USD 75,000.

WHAT CAN BE DECLARED WHEN ENTERING AND LEAVING RUSSIA?

The Customs Rules of Russia provide a list of goods that must be declared when entering or leaving Russia. Regardless of whether they come with a passenger or unaccompanied in luggage. Goods in hand luggage or separate from the passenger shall be stated on the declaration form. It shall be filled in by individuals over 16.

WHAT CAN BE DECLARED IF IT EXCEEDS THE QUOTA?

It is prohibited to export over 10 liters of alcoholic beverages or beer from Russia. Tobacco products that can be imported without paying customs duties: 200 cigarettes, or 500 grams of tobacco, or 250 grams of tobacco products. Listed above, with a total weight not exceeding 250 grams.

ATTENTION! It is prohibited to export over 5 liters of alcoholic beverages or beer from abroad. As alcoholic beverages over 1 liter must be declared and customs duties and taxes paid for every liter over the quota.